Japan

Iwate Prefecture

Iwate, located in the northeast part of Japan, is the 2nd largest prefecture after Hokkaido. Iwate is full of charm throughout each of the four rich, beautiful seasons and boasts stunning views of the sea from the rias coastline, elegant mountains, and many historical sites telling stories of history and culture represented by two world heritage sites.

World Heritage Site, Hiraizumi (Hiraizumi)

In June of 2011, "Hiraizumi- Temples, Gardens, and Archaeological Sites Representing the Buddhist Pure Land" was listed as a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site.

Motsu-ji (Hiraizumi)

Pure Land Gardens boasting exquisite beauty throughout all four seasons.

Hashino Iron Mine (Kamaishi)

It was listed as a World Heritage Site in July, 2015 as a site symbolizing the modernization of the steel industry in Japan.

History and Culture

Chagu Chagu Umako Festival (Takizawa, Morioka)

100 beautifully decorated horses are ridden by children about 15 km at a walking pace along the road. Held on the 2nd Saturday in June.

Goshono Jomon Park (Ichinohe)

Ruins from the Jomon period dating back about 4,000 years cover the area.

Esashi Fujiwara no Sato Heritage Park (Oshu)

This part is a reconstruction of the buildings and streets of the Heian period. It is famous as a location for the filming of TV shows.

Morioka Castle Site Park (Iwate Park) (Morioka)

With cherry blossoms in the spring and fall colors in the autumn, this beautiful park is full of nature.

Oni Kenbai (Demon's Sword Dance) (Kitakami)

Hayachine Kagura (Hanamaki)
Registered as a UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage in 2009.

Shishi-Odori (Deer Dance) (Throughout Iwate)
